Some Enthusiastic Praise for Cynthia Ulrich Tobias and Sue Acuña

For Cynthia:

Thank you again so much for doing the trainings for our mentors—it was amazing how many people were so moved by your words and commented to me in emails about how great it was!

—Jennifer Youngblood, Mentor Coordinator
Communities in Schools, Federal Way, WA

I want to extend the most heartfelt thank you for your training Friday. Several teachers are very excited about trying your techniques with some students they feel they have no influence over. Your techniques gave us hope with the most challenging students.

—Steve Backman, Administrator
Lawrence Gardner High School– Topeka Juvenile Correction Facility, Topeka, KS

Those who sat under your leadership were inspired, affirmed, and challenged. They returned to their place of service with new understandings, ideas for implementation, and resources as they minister to children and their families. Thank you for sharing your talent, insight and time with us.

—Barbara Lyon, Conference Chain
Child Development Alliance, Orange, Park, FL

For Sue:

Sue—I love your blog and I have even been sharing your ideas and thoughts with others! You are very “right on.”

—Judy Wolfe
Canada Director of Communications, LAMP Ministry

Sue—You are very good at what you do and I really enjoy reading your blogs – I’ve learned a lot! Having one teenager and two, not too far off, I appreciate all the knowledge that you share with us. Keep it coming!!!!

—Kristi Ancira
Pre-School Teacher and Parent of 4

Well said, Mrs. Acuna! Thanks for this article. Your blogs are so well-timed to situations I am going through. Are you sure you’re not following me? LOL!! Blessings and thanks.

—Barbie Petzoldt
Middle School Science and Math Teacher, Federal Way, WA
