

Putting Your Style to Work

*Strategies for Success With All Kinds of Learners

Part Two in The Way We Work series

by Cynthia Ulrich Tobias, M.Ed.

Building on the basic concepts introduced in Part One (The Way We Work), this seminar focuses on application to specific situations and issues faced by your organization.

Participants will develop strategies for using learning and communicating style strengths to promote effective teamwork, turn conflict into cooperation and continually improve the morale and efficiency of the organization.

Cynthia will consult with designated representatives of the organization in advance of the seminar to determine what specific information and activities will be most pertinent to current needs and goals of the group.

The seminar will include interactive activities such as:

- Personal Work Profile
An individual summary of strengths
- Reasons Why and Things to Try
Finding many ways to reach the same goal
- Daily Minimum Requirements
Quick, practical ways to keep almost everyone happy on the job

Everyone who attends will walk away with practical and immediately useful strategies for using learning and communicating styles in their everyday lives, both at work and even at home.

About Your Presenter:

Cynthia Tobias has a successful background as a high school teacher, a police officer, and a business owner. She is a best-selling author of 9 books, a featured guest on radio and television, a popular presenter for business, government agencies, churches and schools throughout the U.S. and the world and is the busy mother of twin sons, now in college.

Some comments from other clients who have used this Part Two seminar:

Cynthia is extremely insightful and has a fabulous sense of humor that keeps her audience engaged. Her thought provoking and interesting presentation leaves folks with a much better understanding of different personalities in the workplace and how to appreciate the differences. She also demonstrates through examples how to apply that knowledge in the work place to build stronger teams and a cohesive work environment. I highly recommend Cynthia as a guest speaker.
